

Sinclair's plan to require their stations to air a political documentary focussed against one candidate is improper and undemocratic - no matter which candidate or party. This is now the obvious example of the danger of media ownership consolidation.

Please withdraw permission for the planned program by Sinclair.

Thank you.

Barbara Lemmon